Authority For God Absolute Authority Right To Command Demonic Absolute Power Objects. Natural Law People Divine By Ownership Self Positive Law Nonfamilial Headship of House 8 Spouses Employees Power of Adult Male, generally Teachers Orders the father Civil Servants (Government) Husband 7 Wife<sup>7</sup> Ftc. People living in house as Jurisdiction practicing Catholic. Office 1, 3, 4, 5, 9 Office<sup>1,3,4,6</sup> Pope Obligation to Command 6,9 Mother Father Right to Bishop Council Right to Council Priest Minor Girls Minor Boys Pre-marriage Girls Adult Children: Obligation to Obligation to Obligation to Adult Siblings have Command Command Command Obligation to Command Deacon to each other out of 4th 1. Biological Father or Legally Adopted Commandment<sup>2,11</sup> 2.4th Commandment, Subjection out of piety, giving honor to their parents. Imprecatory or Command <sup>10</sup> _____ 3. Office of father primarily to protect and provide, Mother household/children

- 4. Office gives a right and a duty to command
- 5. Natural right to command however Father can counter command mother with reason.
- 6. Obligation to Command through Office as of head of household, (a house divided is an open door to demonic so all in house should be participating in the Sacraments and submit to authority of head of household).
- 7. Solemn contract is more than an oath or a vow, (Both parties of a solemn contract are bound to the contract even if other party does not abide by it.) This gives the right to give a command over the body. physical healing not spiritual commands other than in retaliation to demons.
- 8. If the Father dies then the oldest adult sonls obligation of support for the other siblings until age of majority. includes the obligation to command, according to Natural Law.
- 9. Office of mother acts as Head of House when Father is absent unless the Father commands otherwise. (absence is different than death).
- 10. Without Authority may allow demonic affliction
- 11. Piety is made manifest toward the aged and infirmed parents by the discharge of the obligation to offer and provide temporal and spiritual support including the obligation to command evil spirits.

(body and spiritual) Imprecatory or Command 10_____ (body only) Deprecatory or petition —

> Command
>
> Blessing Power \= Authority

Copyright 2019 Chad Ripperger